The Registers of Births, Deaths, and Marriages respectively, pertaining to every Registration District in Scotland, are kept in duplicate for each year; and after being examined and compared, one of the duplicates is retained by the Local Registrar, while the other is transmitted to the Registrar-General in Edinburgh. Every person is entitled to search such Registers, and any relative Inventories or Indexes in the custody of the Registrar, upon the days and during the hours of business fixed by the Sheriff, or, where no special regulation has been made by him upon the subject, at all reasonable hours on any lawful day, on payment of a fee of 2s. for a General, and 1s. for a Particular Search, and to have an Extract of any Entry in the said Registers for the further sum of 2s. 1d., including Stamp Duty. In the case of a Particular Search, the applicant must indicate a particular name or entry; while in the case of a General Search, he does not require to specify the object of such search. Every Extract of any Entry in the Register Books, kept under the provisions of the Registration Acts (17 & 18 Vict. c. 80, 18 Vict. c. 29, and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 85), duly authenticated and signed, is admissible as evidence in all parts of His Majesty's dominions without any other proof of such Entry.
