Dear Mr McDiarmid

I am just in receipt of yours & thank you kindly for your trouble.

I wrote again yesterday as I had been anxious about the affair & afraid that my letter had been misbid.

I note what you
say about next & certainly will not mention it. any where

I have been making up estimates & now what remains
is to get sanction
of Croftus as you
say.

Dear

oh! what weather!

Mr M'Nee is in Brigo's Luck & I'm
sure vowing all kinds of maledictions upon
it.

I am here at present & wish I were within hearing distance of the Cam-a-Mhara
breakers, but possibly

indoors is just as pleasant to work
in at present.

Again thanking
you most sincerely
I remain

Yours truly
D. MacG. Whyte.
