FAMILY TREE

CHAPTER 1

Introduction

As far back as I can remember, I was aware of my Hebridean Heritage and have always been proud to own it as part of my genetic make-up. My father was from the island of Tiree and my mother from the island of Islay. Both were fluent Gaelic speakers and only learned English when they entered the primary school. Indeed, my father studied Gaelic at Glasgow University and was awarded the prize in Gaelic in 1923. It was a book - a translation from a Greek tale translated into Gaelic and called "Togail na Tebe" or the Gaelic version of the "Thebaid of Statius" and not by any means the easiest of reading matter in any language! However, I took all of this for granted, and while I enjoyed my annual holidays in Islay and met many relations, I did not, for a number of reasons, take a great deal of interest in my forebears until much later in my life when, like many others, I became interested in tracing my roots as far back as I could. This has been a long trail - sometimes frustrating, sometimes surprising but has all along been a revelation of how these hardy people rose above the trials of harsh climate and poverty with dignity and humanity. They were millers and crofters, distillery workers and gamekeepers. They were ordinary people who achieved extraordinary things throughout their lives and I hope to share with you, their culture and society and how through hard work and education, they became teachers and lawyers, poets and preachers.

My name is Alan Iain Cameron. Alan is for Allan McFadyen who was my great great grand-father and someone who was greatly admired by my father and Iain (Gaelic for John) was my father's name and my grandfather's name and a name which recurs many times in my family tree. In fact, not only was my father called Iain, so also was his brother. My father, the younger of the two was Iain Beag or Little John and his older brother was Iain Mor or Big John. The main surnames of my Tiree ancestors were Cameron, McLean, Munn McKinnon and McFadyen and on my mother's side they were Fraser, Currie and McFadyen. There are obviously other names and branches in the tree as a result of families moving to and from the islands and of course as we explore the diaspora, we find that our Scottish family names are lost through marriage into European, Asian and African families. The potato famine of the late 1840s sparked massive emigration mainly to Canada and America and I have traced close connections to these countries and to the Antipodes. Every day, I find new connections in New Zealand and Australia, most of whom do not have any of the names I have mentioned although I must admit there are many McLeans, McPhees and McKinnons in New Zealand to whom I can trace a family connection.

Some of my McLean relations emigrated to the Canadian prairies of Manitoba and Saskatchewan; others landed in Nova Scotia and moved on from there to become prominent citizens contributing to the development of nationhood in Canada and USA. On a visit to western Canada some years ago, I heard about the wild McLean Boy's Gang - three brothers (who all met their end before reaching the age of 25) who, after the death of their father (a fur trader) set out to burn pillage and murder in the area. The tour guide suggested that they might be from Tiree. I researched this and found that they were, in fact, from Mull but close enough, maybe, to be related.

A Cameron whose DNA profile overlaps with my own is Malcolm Cameron who emigrated to Ontario in 1850 from Tiree where he was born. Although from fairly humble origins he went on to be a prominent merchant and politician in Bruce Co., Ontario. We will meet Malcolm later.

CHAPTER 2

My Cameron Ancestors in Tiree

I can trace my Cameron ancestors back to the early 1700s with some degree of confidence although the records at that stage are very unreliable. Principally, you are dependent on Old Parish Records (OPR) in which births, christenings (baptisms) and marriages were recorded by the parish minister. The problem is that there were lapses and these records are frustratingly incomplete. In addition, the records do not contain deaths. The registering of births, marriages and deaths was only formalised throughout Scotland in 1855. Thereafter, there is a good and complete record although, on occasion, the handwriting of the Registrar is difficult to decipher.

Census returns began in 1841 and at 10-year intervals thereafter. They are always at least 100 years old (I suppose to protect the anonymity of living people and so the last Census which you can access is 1911. We must now wait with excitement for the release in 2021 of the 1921 Census. The Censuses are the records of families or at least all those living in the same house and are extremely useful for relating people. They are, of course, only a record of those people living in the house at the time. If some of the men-folk were working away from home or daughters in service, they should be recorded in the place where they were working and residing at the time. Ages, in these documents, tend to be inaccurate. Sometimes, they were rounded up and at other times rounded down. I have one relative, Hugh Cameron, who is listed as aged 100 in the 1841 census. Subsequent research suggests that he may have been about 80 at the time.

In some parts of Argyll, the Duke of Argyll conducted a census of his tenants and this was the case in Tiree in 1779 and 1767 and there was another smaller scale census in 1792. These are extremely useful and have been transcribed<sup>1</sup>. Again, such censuses as those, only record who was in the house at the time of the census. With the non-recording of deaths, one is required to use these census returns to interpolate deaths ie present on the 1841 census but not on the 1851 suggests a death in the interim. However, it may be that the person or family had moved to the mainland for employment or, as was the case throughout the 17th, 18th and 19th and even 20th centuries, there was mass migration to Canada, USA and Australia and New Zealand. A positive outcome of this mass migration, is that their descendants are very conscientious at chasing up their own roots and there is a great deal of useful information on sites such as Ancestry.com<sup>ii1</sup> and many others, details of which I have put in Appendix 1 at the end of the book. For recording this information, I currently use Family Tree Maker 2017 UK Edition<sup>2iii</sup> which is available as an Apple Mac version or for Microsoft. However, of all the available sources, the best and most accurate is often within your own family. Family Bibles traditionally recorded the births, marriages and deaths within the family. Sadly, most of those will have been lost forever and that is why I have felt it important to record to the best of my ability my own roots and, in passing, some other important branches of my particular family tree. Other important sources of information, are the gravestones which can often give information about where your ancestor stayed, who their parents were and any children. There are often inscriptions. My favourite is, “GUS AM BRIS AN LA” which means till the break of day or less literally “Until we meet again”.

The oldest Cameron ancestor whom I can trace is Hugh Cam(m)eron and only through his “registering” the birth of a son Archibald Cam(m)eron in 1767. Incidentally, I have only seen one or two occasions when Cameron was spelled with two “m”s and was probably an idiosyncrasy of the minister of the time who kept the parish records. I have partial information that will take me further back to the family of the Clan Chiefs but the information I have is not reliable. However, what I do have is a fairly strong DNA link with other Tیره Camerons which suggests that we are related, perhaps through an illegitimate child. Without any conclusive evidence, I have to regard this as a brick wall. Unfortunately, I have no birth date evidence or marriage or death for Hugh only that he registered the birth on behalf of himself and Flory McLean. Where they came from, I have not yet found out and although this search reveals new truths every day, I have been searching for Hugh’s roots for more than twenty years without success. At the time of Archibald’s baptism in 1767, the parents lived in Baugh, Tیره although other evidence suggests that they were from the Cornaig / Kilmoluaig area of Tیره.

Archibald was my great-great-great-great-grandfather or to use the common convention 4*great grandfather.

Archibald's baptism is recorded as follows:

22/12/21767

Was baptized Archd Cammeron, son to Hugh Cammeron and Flory McLean in Baugh

Archibald was married on 3rd February, 1784 to Margaret McLean and the spelling of Cameron in the parish register reverted from Cammeron to the original. (This is interesting especially since the name Cameron is from two Gaelic words Cam- meaning twisted or wry and sron - meaning nose. So, our name derives from the nickname of a former clan chief or leader who had perhaps a twisted or even broken nose).

Margaret McLean was born 8th March 1767 in Cornaigbeg to Charles and Catherine Mclean. Charles's year of birth was 1741 and Catherine's was 1746. Charles's family link back to the McLeans of Ardgour. We can speculate that Hugh Cammeron, Archibald's father was born sometime in the late 1730s or early 1740s. Archibald and Margaret had a large family – all born at Cornaigmore. Without any evidence, I am led to assume that Archibald and Margaret were crofters or cottars.

Their children were: Donald 15th Feb 1785, Flora 16th Apr. 1789, Christy 16th Apr. 1789, Christiana 12th Jun. 1791, Mary 29th Aug. 1793, Effy Dec. 1795, John Apr. 1798, Annabella Nov. 1800, Catharene Sept 1803, Marion Mar. 1807.

My line descends from Donald Cameron

(15 Feb 1785 – 9 Nov 1868) : Cornaigmore. Donald Cameron my 3*Great-Grandfather

Donald married Catherine McKinnon (Birth abt. 1790 – Death:
Before 1851) : Cornaigmore

Donald & Catherine had a large family as follows: all at Cornaigmore

was

Archibald Cameron (01 Aug 1810), Mary (16 Mar 1812), John (13 Jun 1814), Sarah (30 Jun 1816), Margaret (20 Nov 1818), Flora (24 Jan 1821), Ann, (13 Apr 1823), Christina (28 Nov 1825), Hector (23 Mar 1828), Catharene (10 Aug 1831)

Archibald Cameron (01/08/1810 – 08/08/1873) was my 2* great- grandfather

Archibald mar. Margaret McDonald of Crossigair (19 Sep 1818 07 Apr 1872) on 02 Jan 1839

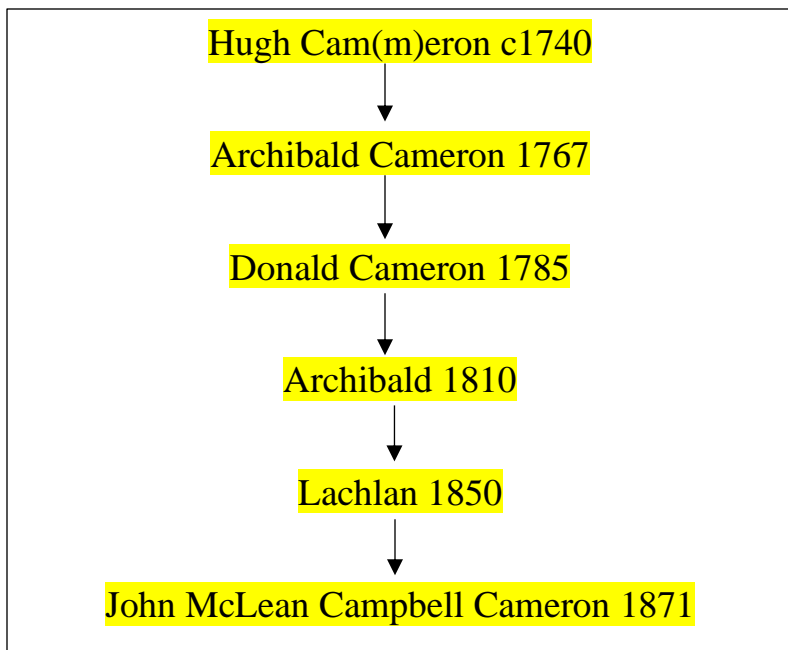

They had a large family as follows:

Lachlan Cameron (20/04/1850 – 21/04/1907) was my great-grandfather

Lachlan Cameron (my Great-grandfather) was born in Kilmoluaig. Interestingly, his name does not appear on the parish register. This may have been an error or the fact that there was no minister or that the family had broken away from the established Church of Scotland. The Free Church was formed as a result of the Disruption in 1843. However, Archibald (1847) was listed on the OPR but not Christian. By the time the older children were born the 1855 National Registry was established. Lachlan married Flora Ann McLean (b 16 Jan 1854) of Grianal (Greenhill) who remarkably lived till 17 May 1944 so theoretically, I could have met this 90-year-old great-grandmother as I was born in 1941. Lachlan and Flora had one son: John McLean Campbell Cameron who was born on 16th November 1871 in Kilmoluaig. Lachlan and Flora Ann were married in Glasgow on 11 Aug 1876.

John McLean Campbell Cameron (my grandfather) was born on 16th November 1871 in Kilmoluaig, Tiree and died on 29th January 1922 in Cornaigmore. He married Amelia Munn on 30 Mar 1903. They had four children:

Catherine Munn Cameron, (28 Dec 1895 – 19 Feb 1927)

John McPhail Cameron, (22 April 1900 – 03 Nov 1941)

John Cameron (21 Nov 1903 – 18th Feb, 1951) – my father

Robina Mary Alexandra Buchanan Cameron (18 Apr 1906 – 24 Aug 1977)

This is the lineage of Cameron males from Hugh Cameron born abt. 1740 ?? to Alan I Cameron.

Some Additional Notes:

Generation 1

Alan Iain Cameron, (me) son of John Cameron MA and Mary Fraser was born on 21st September, 1941 in Southend, Argyll. He married Elizabeth Logan, daughter of Daniel Logan and Sarah Rae Collie on 3rd August 1968. Elizabeth was born on 12 April 1947 in Inverness.

CHAPTER 3

My Parents

John Cameron, son of John McLean Campbell Cameron and Amelia Munn was born on 21 Nov 1903 in Scarinish, Isle of Tiree. He died on 18 Feb 1951 in the Southern General Hospital, Glasgow After graduating from Glasgow University with an MA degree, he taught Maths and Latin at Bowmore on the Island of Islay and then was appointed Headteacher of Ardbeg Primary School. In 1934 he was appointed as Headteacher of Southend Primary School, near Campbeltown where he remained until his death, aged 47, in 1951. John Cameron was very active in the community where his knowledge of Gaelic and phonetics was useful to Nils Holmer from Upsala University who was studying the Argyllshire Gaelic dialects. He was appointed to the Kintyre Committee on Onomastics (the study of place-names) He was also the Gaelic tutor of the Southend Gaelic Choir, the village Librarian, popular as the “Fear an Taigh” (Chairman) at village concerts and ceilidhs. He was a devout Christian and much respected member of the community. In the 1911 census return John was listed as Johnnie (Iain beag in Gaelic)

He married Mary Fraser daughter of John Fraser and Anne Currie on 08 Jul 1932 in Kildalton Parish Church, Isle of Islay. Mary Fraser was born on 24 May 1905 in Ardbeg, Isle of Islay. She died on 11 Apr 1984 at the Cottage Hospital, Campbeltown, Argyll. After School Mary trained as a secretary at Skerry's College in Glasgow and used to tell us how she practised her shorthand skills by taking down the minister's sermon in the Church. She was the first Gaelic speaking clerkess / secretary of An Comunn – the Gaelic Organisation. She had also been secretary to the manager of Lagavoulin Distillery. After the death of my father, she was initially the receptionist at the Argyll Hotel Campbeltown and latterly was school secretary at Dalintobair Primary School in Campbeltown.

Mary and John had three children: Anna Mairi Cameron<sup>1</sup> (14 Aug 1934 -02 Dec 2015) born in Ardbeg and brought up at the Schoolhouse, Southend, Argyll.

Alan Iain Cameron<sup>2</sup> (myself) (21 Sep 1941) born and brought up in Southend, Argyll.

Alasdair Fraser Cameron<sup>3</sup> (24 Jun 1943 : Southend -14 Nov 2018 : Bishopriggs) born and brought up in Southend, Argyll.

1. Anna M Cameron was a talented singer and pianist who competed regularly at the local and annual Mods – singing, playing, reciting verse and conversing in Gaelic. On my first year singing at the Mod (aged 7) in June 1949, I won the competition for solo singing for boys under the age of 12. (I think I was the only competitor) but Anna won countless competitions across the spectrum. Such was the success of the Camerons (mainly Anna), that the guest artist at the final concert – the well-loved Scottish tenor Kenneth McKellar sang, “The March of the Cameron Men” in recognition of their winning so many prizes.

She was regarded very highly as a student at Campbeltown Grammar School after which she trained as a Radiographer at Glasgow Western Infirmary. Thereafter, she joined the QARANC (The Queen Alexandra Royal Army Nursing Corps) at Aldershot. There she met Terence Alexander Nicholls who was in the Dental Corps and they were married on 21 Dec 1956 in Overbury, Glos. They had two sons – Kevan John Nicholls and Douglas Stuart Nicholls. (Incidentally, Terry's best man was his brother, Graham Nicholls who was at the time a successful steeple-chase jockey with Peter Cazalet, trainer, of the Queen Mother's stable). Terry and Anna had spells in Germany but were mostly based at Aldershot. They separated about 1970 and Anna moved to Kilmarnock and then settled in Inverness. Kevan Nicholls (dob 26 Aug 1958 : Aldershot.- Jan 2006 : Inverness) who married twice (1) Cassandra ? and (2) Lorraine Munro (01 December 1957 at Leith Registry Office) with whom he had three children – Ryan John Nicholls, (20 Sep 1985) Lisa Anna Nicholls (28 Aug 1987) and Dean Tony Nicholls, (16 Aug 1990) all resident in Edinburgh. Lisa has children. Kevan and Lorraine separated in ?? and Kevan died of heart failure in ??

Anna and Terry's second son - Douglas Nicholls lives in Gloucester and works in IT. He was a very talented sportsman played rugby and as a hockey player, played at county level.

2. Alan Iain Cameron Alan was born in the Schoolhouse, Southend on 21st September 1941. It was during the war years and he was so skinny at birth that he was described as like a skinned rabbit. After leaving Campbeltown Grammar School, in 1959, he attended Glasgow University from which he graduated with an Honours BSc in Chemistry in 1963. A year at Jordanhill Teacher Training College was followed by teaching posts at Campbeltown Grammar School 1964-1967 followed by an appointment as Head of Science at Invergordon Academy 1967-1973, head of Chemistry at Mackie Academy, Stonehaven 1973-1977 and Depute Headmaster at Selkirk HS 1977-1981. In September, 1981, Alan took up the post of Rector at Ellon Academy from which he retired in 1996. The roll in 1981 was just over 1000 pupils and in 1996 was 1715. Thereafter, Alan enrolled at Aberdeen University and completed an Honours MA in Gaelic Language and Celtic Civilisation in June 2000. From 1999 until 2008, Alan was Councillor for Ellon Town – the latter 6 years as Leader of the opposition. For most of this time he was on the Board of Aberdeen College, Chair of the Audit Committee and Chairman of the College's company which was involved in training staff for the oil industry. Alan was also involved in many community activities including the establishment of the Trust to manage Ellon Castle Gardens.

Alan Iain Cameron and Elizabeth Margaret Cameron were married in Tain Parish Church on 03 Aug 1968.

Elizabeth (Cameron) Logan (12 Apr 1947 : Inverness) trained as a Primary School teacher at Aberdeen College and taught in Invergordon Selkirk, Balmedie, Ellon and Pitmedden. She is a keen accordionist and plays with the Ythan Fiddlers.

They had three children:

John Alan Cameron (18 Oct 1969) – (18 May 1991). John graduated from Aberdeen University with a law degree (LLB) in 1990 and died as the result of a car accident in Australia in 1991. He is interred in the cemetery in Ellon.

Morag Cameron (20 Jun 1972) studied Art at Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art, Dundee (BA Hons) and Gray's School of Art, Aberdeen (MA). She spent more than 20 years in Hong Kong and Macau as an Interior Designer, latterly as Director of Furnishings and Fabrics for the Wynne Corporation.

Angus Stuart Cameron (22 Nov 1975) studied Spanish and teaching English as a Foreign Language at Heriot Watt University (BA) including a year studying and teaching in Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay. He is employed in tourism. Alan's parents were John Cameron (1903-1951) and Mary Fraser (1905-1984) They were married in Kildalton Parish Church, Isle of Islay on 08 Jul 1932.

Elizabeth's parents were Daniel Logan 23 Jan 1913 : Edinburgh – 14 Aug 1996 : East Ilsley, Berks) and Sarah Rae Collie (10 Nov 1908 : Tain, Ross-shire) – 21 Mar 1969 : Invergordon). They were married in Greenock on 29 Sep 1941

My Paternal Grandparents

John McLean Campbell Cameron. was Alan's grandfather and was born on 16 Nov 1871 at Kilmoluaig, Tiree and died on 29 Jan. 1922. He was the son of Lachlan Cameron (20 Apr 1850 : Kilmoluaig – 20 Apr 1850 : Cornaigmore) and Flora Ann McLean (16 Jan 1854 : Grianal – 17 May : 1944 Cornaigmore)

He married Amelia Munn (21 Jun 1874 : Kirkapol – 21 Apr 1954 : Scarinish) (my grandmother) on 30 Mar 1903 : Anderston, Glasgow.) Amelia Munn was the daughter of John Munn (17 Jan 1834 : Kilmoluaig - 15 Jul 1909 : Cornaigbeg) and Catherine McFadyen (07 Mar 1873 : Scarinish -26th Oct 1928 : Scarinish). John and Catherine were not married. She was the widow of John McPhail (merchant) and they had two sons – Charles McPhail and Norman (later John) McPhail. John Munn was married to Flora McPhail (26 Mar 1845 : Cornaig – 29 May 1914 : Lochgilphead). They had three daughters, Christina, Ann and Nancy. Christina (08 May 1880-18 Jul 1961) and Donald McLean (Jul 1880 : Cornaigbeg- Roy's Cemetery Fullarton, Canada) had one son Malcolm (Calum Salum) (21 Jun 1904 : Salum – 19 Nov 1971 : Salum). Calum McLean, Salum had a General Merchant's shop at Salum and sold everything from a needle to an anchor. I remember being in the store with my aunt Robina. She asked for a piece of cheese which he solemnly cut from the slab with a rusty wire which he cleaned on his sleeve. Are we not now too obsessed with Health & Safety?

My Maternal Grandparents

My maternal grandfather was John Fraser. He was born and brought up in a tiny hamlet to the north-west of Potnahaven in Islay. He was born 27 Aug 1869 in Cladadh and died 28 Sept 1955 in Kilmeny, Islay. His father – William Fraser was a shepherd who was from Boleskine on the east side of Loch Ness who came to join his brother – Thomas, Shepherd at Kilillan in the Gruinard area of Islay. My grandfather's mother was Peggy McFadyen from Cladadh, Potnahaven. John's parents were not married and it is understood that William, who was quite young at the time emigrated to New Zealand with the intention that Peggy and John would join him. Unfortunately, we do not know why this did not happen. The census returns suggest that John was looked after by his uncle – John McFadyen and for most of his working life my grandfather worked as a stillman in Ardbeg Distillery.

Anne Currie was my grandmother born 10 Nov 1873 Oa, Islay and died 29 Mar 1954 Ardbeg, Islay. They were married on 17 Oct 1901 in Merkland Street, Partick, Glasgow and for as long as I can remember lived in Wembley Cottage, Ardbeg They had one son. – Iain Fraser (uncle Iain) (02 Oct 1902 : Ardbeg – 11 Sep 1964 : Ballygrant) who was a gamekeeper first of all at Farkin (Port Ellen), then Kildalton Estate and latterly at Dunlossit Estate Port Askaig. He married Marion (Morag) McMillan (Auntie Morag) 13 Jan 1908 -04 Sep 1978 on 09 Feb 1933 in Steven Memorial Church, Govan. Although she was brought up in Clydeside, her parents, Duncan McMillan and Mary Lochhead were both from Islay. Ian & Morag had two children Ann Currie Fraser who died of meningitis aged 12 when they lived in Farkin and Iain Fraser who, after military service with the Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders, drove lorries and buses for Bells of Ballygrant and was well-known in the community.

John & Annie Fraser also had two daughters – Mary Fraser (my Mother) and Annie Fraser (my Aunt). Annie married Willie Fisher from Fauldhouse and they had one son William who is married and farms in Essex. William has two daughters and grandchildren.

My Paternal Great Grandparents

Cameron and McLean

Lachlan Cameron 20 Apr 1950 : Kilmoluaig, Tiree – 21 Apr 1907 : Cornaigmore, Tiree was the son of Archibald Cameron and Margaret McDonald. He married Flora Ann McLean (16 Jan 1854 : Grianal, Tiree – 17 May 1944) on 11 Aug 1876 in Glasgow. The census records show that Lachlan originally worked on the family crofts but latterly moved to Glasgow Partick and was employed as an engine fitter. He died at the age of 57 from phthisis (which is sometimes called TB) whereas his wife died in her 91st year. Flora Ann's sister - Nancy was married to Archibald McLean – the Cornaig Miller who therefore was the husband of a 2nd great aunt of mine. We are all related or so it would seem!

My Paternal Great Grandparents

Munn and McFadyen

Amelia's mother was Catherine McFadyen (07 Mar 1837 : Scarinish, Tiree – 28 Oct 1928). She was a daughter of Allan McFadyen (Jun 1800 – 23 Jun 1891) and Amelia Stewart (12 Mar 1812 : Musselburgh – 25 Mar 1891 : Scarinish) (my 2*great-grandparents). I believe that Amelia Stewart's father came to Tiree as an Exciseman.

Catherine McFadyen and John Munn (17 Jan 1834 : Kilmoluaig – 15 Jul 1909 : Cornaigbeg) were Amelia's parents and my great-grandparents. I believe that John was a joiner and wheelwright and Catherine a dressmaker. I have details of the Munn family as follows: John's parents were Neil Munn (Jun 1810 : Heanish -22 Dec 1867 Kilmoluaig) and Margaret Kennedy (Abt 1809 – 23 Feb 1899). Neil's parents were Donald Munn (1764 - ?) and Flory Cameron (abt 1785 - ?) (my 3*great-grandparents). A further connection is that Allan McFadyen's father – John McPhadden (1766-1816) married Janet Munn (1772-1857), daughter of Farquhar or Farquand Munn. Farquhar was the Great-grandfather of John Munn (1764) and therefore the 4*great-grandfather of me. Both Farquhar, who was described as a Land Agent and his wife Catherine McCalman died in Galveborg, Sweden. Farquhar's father was born in 1670 and was my 5th Great Grandfather.

My Maternal Great Grandparents

Fraser and McFadyen

1. William Fraser (15 Feb 1847 : Boleskine, Inverness-shire – 1933 : Oamaru, New Zealand) was my mother's Grandfather and therefore my great-grandfather. His parents were Donald Fraser (abt 1794.: Boleskine – 30 Apr 1870 : Boleskine) and Catherine Campbell (1806 – 26 Jan 1857 : Dunain). I have identified (tentatively) Hugh Fraser and Ann Fraser as Donald's parents. William proved to be a major brick wall for me until recently when I was chasing up some McLean relatives in New Zealand, I chanced upon William and his other family. The story, according to my cousin, is that William emigrated (we thought to Canada) with the intention that his wife Peggy McFadyen and his son John Fraser would follow at a later date. Apparently, a large container of goods etc had arrived in Islay from William but the family were too poor to access it because of the import duty. William had followed his brother, Thomas Fraser to Islay to manage the sheep which replaced the crofters during the Clearances. Thomas had a large family. One of his daughters Catherine Fraser (7 Jan 1869 : Kilinallan) married Alexander McDougall (1869) on 19th June 1901 in St Rollox, Glasgow. Their daughter Mary McDougall (01 Jul 1904 – 18 Dec 1963) was a 2nd cousin of my mother. I remember visiting Mary on several occasions and her husband Dugald McQueen worked on the CalMac ferry from West Loch Tarbert to Islay. They had a daughter, Rena who married Neil McArthur from Campbeltown and had one son Neil (3rd Cousin once removed of Alan). Their son Angus, (b 1938) was married and died young They had one daughter, Jane. Returning to William Fraser (16 Feb 1847 : Boleskine – 1933 : Oamaru, New Zealand) He and Peggy McFadyen (1844 : Cladadh, Portnahaven – 8th February 1910, Ardbeg) were the parents of my grandfather. Peggy had a daughter – Maggie McFadyen (1871 : Lanark, Glasgow – 12 Oct 1947 :

Ballygrant, Kilmeny). Maggie married Donald Fletcher (1871 - 09 Jan 1951 : Ballygrant, Islay). William Fraser and Peggy McFadyen were my great-grandparents.

CHAPTER 5

The McLeans of Grianal (Greenhill) Tiree

This is the family of Flora Ann McLean (Great Grandmother of Alan)

Flora Ann McLean (wife of Lachlan Cameron) was the daughter of Neil McLean (15 Feb 1830 – 18??) and Ann Campbell (11 Jul 1826-28 Feb 1915). They were not married

Neil does not appear on the 1861 Census nor is he to be found in the ScotlandsPeople database. Which leaves several possibilities: a. he died before 1855 or he emigrated. He was only 25 when Flora Ann was born and this seems a likely possibility. What is more puzzling is that his son Archibald was born on 01 Jan 1857 and his twin daughters Ann and Nancy were born on 01 Jan 1857. In the 1861 Census, Flora Ann, Ann, and Archibald are staying with their mother Ann Campbell aged 34 and living with Ann Campbell's mother (described as a cottar) However the birth certificate for Ann McLean 04 Oct 1860 at Cornaigmore shows father Neil MacLean – Tacksman, (illegitimate) and mother Ann Campbell signed by Neil McLean, father, Greenhill, Tiree.

Flora Ann's sister, Nancy McLean was married to Archibald McLean (the Cornaig Miller) and she had a brother – Archibald McLean who was born 01 Jan 1857 and of whom I have no further details.

Flora Ann's sister Ann was born 04 Oct 1860 and married Archie McArthur (02 Sep 1844 – 1890)

Neil McLean – Flora Ann's father (15 Feb 1830) (My 2*great-grandfather) was born at Grianal and lived with Ann Campbell (11 Jul 1826 -28 Feb 1915 : Cornaigbeg).

Neil was the son of Archibald McLean (May 1788 : Kirkapol - 19 Dec 1855 : Grianal) who married Flora McLean (Aug 1784 : Gribun, Mull – 19 Aug 1885) on 28 Jan 1813. They had the following family as well as Neil – Lachlan (1815 - 01 Sep 1893 : Brock, Ontario), Catherine, Flora, Donald, Marion, Robert, Ann, Mary and Hector.

Mary McLean (08 Mar 1832 Grianal – 1929 NZ) married John McFarlane (10 May 1815 Heylipol – 15 May 1881 Balinoe, Tiree). They had the following family: John Archibald, William Archibald, James Alexander, Donald Neil, Duncan, Mary Flora.

John Archibald McFarlane (21 Sep 1866 Balinoe died in NZ). He married Amelie Charlotte Knowles (1868-1920). They had 3 children Mary Eden McFarlane, Evelyn Fiona McFarlane and Milly McFarlane.

Archibald McLean (May 1788 - 19 Dec 1855) was the son of John McLean and Flory McFadyen They also had a daughter Effie.( 1800.-.20 Apr 1885.: Ontario)

Effie McLean (1800 – 1885) married Donald Cameron (11 Jul 1804 - 08 May 1888 Ontario) on 11 Apr 1821 in Tiree. Their son Malcolm emigrated to Ontario in 1851 and married Sarah McLean and it appears that Effie & Donald followed them out to Brock Co, Ontario. It appears that Effie McLean is a fourth aunt of Alan I Cameron.

The parents of Archibald's wife, Flora McLean (Aug 1784 : Gribun, Mull – 19 Aug 1885 : Grianal) were Hugh Mclean of Airdchraoishnish and Marion McLean (my 4th great grandparents). Marion's parents were Donald McLean of Raodel, Mull and Anna McLean of Torloisk (my 5th Great grandparents). Donald's parents were Capt Allan McLean (1662-1715) and Margaret McLean of Drimnin (my 6th Great grandparents).

CHAPTER 6

George Campbell Hay

I have put this chapter in because until quite recently I was unaware that I was connected to this much admired poet who came from Tarbert which is about 50 miles from my own birth place.

Mary Smith who was married to my maternal great-grandfather, John Currie was the daughter of Donald Smith (29 Oct 1801 : Ardbeg, North Knapdale – 19 Jul 1899 : Grainel, Kilchoman). The Smiths had moved to Islay via Jura in the early 19th C. Donald's wife was Mary Fletcher (16 Nov 1807 : Glenorchy and Inishail – 24 Jan 1899 : Grainel, Kilchoman) Mary's parents were John Fletcher and Mary McLean. John & Mary were my great-great great grandparents. As well as a daughter Mary (my great-great-grandmother), they had a daughter Jean Fletcher (31 Jul 1809 : Carsaig, North Knapdale – 11 Dec 1902 ; Grainel, Islay) Jean married Archibald Campbell (09 Feb 1806 : North Knapdale - 09 Jan 1888, : Grainel). They had a son Duncan Campbell (1832 : Knapdale) who married Jessie Mc Millan in 1881 at Tarbert, Lochfyne. Duncan and Jessie Campbell had a daughter Catherine who married John McDougall Hay on 29th Oct 1909 in Knap House, Tarbert, Loch Fyne. John was a minister of the Church of Scotland and an author. John and Catherine Hay had a son George Campbell Hay who was born on 08 Dec 1915 in Elderslie and died 26 Mar 1984 George Campbell Hay was a 3rd cousin, once removed of mine.

Rev Duncan Campbell who was John McDougall Hay's father-in-law was born in North Knapdale in 1832 but by the 1851 census he was listed as in Kilchoman, Islay as aged 19 year. Initially he farmed with his father in the Gruinard area of Islay. He trained for the ministry and in 1877 was ordained in Kilfinnan Free Church. He died in 1891 exhausted by his labours in a large parish with three churches delivering services in English and Gaelic.

Duncan was a 1st cousin three times removed of mine.

Rev John McDougall Hay (1879-1919) was born in Tarbert Lochfyne and was an outstanding student at Glasgow University. He graduated MA and became a teacher in Lionel School Isle of Lewis but his heart was in the ministry. He was licensed in the presbytery of Inverary in 1908 and ordained a minister of the parish of Elderslie, on 12th May 1909. He died there in 1909 from Tuberculosis. He was also a prolific writer and his best-known novel Gillespie was published in 1914 to great acclaim. His second and last book, Barnacles was, according to Angus Martin,<sup>iv</sup> not received well since it painted too realistic a picture of the people of his native Tarbert.

George Campbell Hay was only 4 when his father died. The Campbell in his name is after his mother Catherine Campbell. He was a very talented child and at the age of 10 enrolled in John Watson's College in Edinburgh - a school that provided places for sons of the manse. From there, he won a scholarship to Fettes College and then to Corpus Christi College, Cambridge in 1934. However, it is as a poet in English, Scots, Gaelic, French, Greek and Swedish that he is best remembered. Here is a short extract from a poem: I have chosen this from a large selection since it brings back memories to me of my native Kintyre.

KINTYRE

Leaving those men, whose hearts are hearths that have no fire, my greetings westward go to lovely long Kintyre

*Her uplands draw my thoughts till over lands and seas
my dreamings go like birds that seek the leafy trees.*

*Of names sweet to the mouth,
of names like the sounding sea,
for my delight alone
I'll write this litany.*

Ròraig and Airigh Fhuar,

*words from some fairy tale
The Grianan and Davaar Carradale, Sunnadale.*

*These on my mouth, I walk among grey walls and chill, these are a flame to warm,
a sain' against all ill.*

MALCOLM CAMERON

Malcolm Camerons descendant – Frank Cameron and I are related a distance of 2 genetic steps at 67 chromosome markers (YDNA-67). Translated into a more understandable form, this means that Malcolm and I are 50% likely to be linked at no more than 6 generations ago and 90% likely to be within 12 generations ago.

Malcolm Cameron (1834 – 1911) was the son of Donald Cameron (11 Jul 1804 : Kenovay, Tiree – 08 May 1888 : Ontario) and Effie McLean 1800 : Cornaigbeg – 20 Apr 1885 Ontario) Effie, the daughter of John McLean (!778) and Flory McFadyen was the sister of Archibald McLean who was the father of Neil McLean and grandfather of my great-grandmother FLORA ANN MCLEAN. That means that Effie McLean is a 4*great aunt of Alan Iain Cameron. I suspect that I can also trace a connection with Flory McFadyen. The links with Donald Cameron are more tenuous but seem to converge around a Duncan Cameron and the Lochiel family but these links have so far evaded my research. However, the extent of the chromosome overlap suggests that there is a relationship. Malcolm and Sarah emigrated to Canada and were married there. They were followed later by Malcolm's parents – Donald and Effie., settling in Bruce Co., Ontario

Cousins

How to Calculate Cousinhood

Follow these steps to figure out what kind of cousins you are with a relative:

1. Identify the most recent ancestor you share with your relative, and how that ancestor is related to both you and to your relative.
2. Find the ancestor on the chart (such as your parent, grandparent, great-grandparent, etc.)
3. Count down one box for each generation between that ancestor and your relative. The box you land on specifies your relationship with the relative, and how much DNA you share with him or her.

The shared DNA data can help you estimate your relationship to a genetic match. Note this chart doesn't show double cousins or half siblings, both relationships with about 25 percent shared DNA (roughly 1,700 cM).

What's in a name?

Is it McLean or MacLean? Both are, of course, correct but which should we use and is McLaine or Maclaine or even McClean or any of the many other variations acceptable. If we assume that the correct format is Mac (meaning in Scottish Gaelic “son of”) then we ought to call the females of this family Nic (meaning “daughter of”). Not only are there variations between families but also within family groupings. I have, therefore opted to use McLean in all occasions. I hope this does not offend!

- a. The same comes with another name found in both my maternal and paternal relatives and can be McFadyen, MacFadyen, McPhaiden, McFadden and many other variations. I have simplified all of those to McFadyen. The name apparently comes from son of Paidean.<sup>vi</sup> Again I have chosen to use the form McFadyen to describe all of my relatives.
- b. The name Currie is also interesting in that it bears little resemblance to the original. The name derives from Murachadh<sup>vii</sup> who was a bard of Irish descent and eventually bard to the Lord of the Isles at his Finlaggan base in Islay. In time this abbreviated to the last part which became originally MacCurry and then Currie. Since all of these names were transmitted through the oral tradition, there was no accepted written form. To reinforce this, I was surprised to find that many of my ancestors right up to the late 19th century registered births marriages and deaths with a cross and a description by the registrar to say his (her) mark.
- c. The names Cameron and Campbell both derive from the Scottish Gaelic CAM meaning a twisted in the case of Cameron SRON<sup>viii</sup> (nose) and in the case of Campbell BEUL<sup>ix</sup> meaning mouth.
- d. The name Fletcher comes from
- e. The name Fraser appears to be a Norman name and may be derived from the French word fraise for strawberry and indeed that
- f. Again, you will see that the name of the island is sometimes Tyree and sometimes Tiree. I have used Tiree throughout. Apparently, there was a change by the Post Office in 1889 so as to avoid confusion with Tyrie in Aberdeenshire. The origin of the name is uncertain and has been suggested as Tir-i ie the land or larder of Iona “I”, pronounced “ee” being the Gaelic name for Iona. Another suggestion is Tir reidh<sup>x</sup> or the flat land relating to the topography of the island which is very low-lying or Tir fo thuinn which means land under the waves.

<sup>1</sup> Murach's son would be MacMhurich where the Mh has a "v" sound. So that Donald, son of Murdoch became Domhnall Mac Mhurich ic (Mh)urich where the (mh) in the brackets is silent which means Donald the son of Murdoch of the son of Murdoch. If you sound out the part in bold print, it sounds like ee-coo-rich from which it became Currie.
