MACLEAN.—In ever loving remembrance of our dear brother and uncle, Charles, who died in Hospital near Forfar, on 1st January, 1923 (War result), aged 28 years, the youngest son of the late Lachlan MacLean, farmer, Kennoy, Tíree.

Worthy of true respect was he
From those he left behind;
A better brother could not be,
Nor friend more true and kind.
You're not forgotten, uncle dear,
Nor ever will you be;
For, as long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
