My dear Christine

I received your kind & nicely composed letter a few days ago, & am sorry I have been unable to answer it before now. I have had a bad attack of bile & indigestion as well & for a while fortnight was not able to do any work, but I feel better now, & is beginning to take a little food.
I miss you all sadly & feel so lonely. Mr. Low went to Dr. Baer's junct to Blairgowrie last Wed.
I do not know how long he may be away. I assure you I feel thankful for the visit although there is not much rest to be had beside Miss Low.
I had a letter from Mary from Moffat this morn they will be home today. C. J. P.

They will, both Suctair has been to see them at my jet. The enclosed I got from your father this week, I am sure.
I see he will keep himself grieving for dear Charles, but he must be submissive to the will of the Lord.
I am very glad you write from home and that you are not so but rather cheer than. How very kind of you to send the machine.
You had no idea how I had I put at my head to him, that a lot of letters it has saved your father.

Miss Stegg had been over on the Sabbath evening after you went away but she did not stay long.
She is a sensible little woman.
I am so glad to hear you are getting on so well with the doctor.

Do you best to please her. You will soon be home now at all events. I had a letter from Mrs Nell McDonald I am sure this week also but she had no news at all.

Now as I have nothing more to say, I shall conclude with warmest love

Your affectionate Aunt
Susan

P.S. I am using this paper as I have no, right paper in the house & I am so tired that I can't think of going out. Should you have time write me but let it not be late to you.
Your Aunt Susan.
