

NATIONAL COMMERCIAL BANK OF SCOTLAND LIMITED

CHIRNSIDE, BERWICKSHIRE

TELEPHONE No. 229

5th June 1964

Dear Dad.

Donald, Monag and I arrived home without any trouble last Saturday. The children were very sleepy and could not get to their beds quick enough. However they had enjoyed themselves very much and are looking forward to coming back. On Sunday they were all for getting back on the train to Linlithgow. Marjorie had managed fine during our absence, her only complaint being that she had no one to shout at.

You will be finding the house empty now that Effie has gone back to Bangour. I know that you will be managing by yourself but it will take a long time to get used to having no one beside you.

I do not know when I will be back to see you. The manager is going away for two weeks holiday and it will be difficult to get away early on a Saturday. The chances are though that I will be seeing you in Chirnside soon if you decide to come with Mary & Jim.

I'll have to go home tonight and get started in the garden. I've hardly been in it this last six weeks. The only two good nights we had this week I was out working. — I thought when Mrs Wilson (the farmer) left Chirnside that I had lost one of my spare time jobs. However the farmer who bought her place came and asked me if I would like to continue doing the wages and also those on another farm he owns. — I will soon have no time for Bank work!

The baby is coming on fine and is still good at sleeping. — Donald has decided that we should keep her.

I'll sign off now and catch the 4.40.
post

Love from us all.
