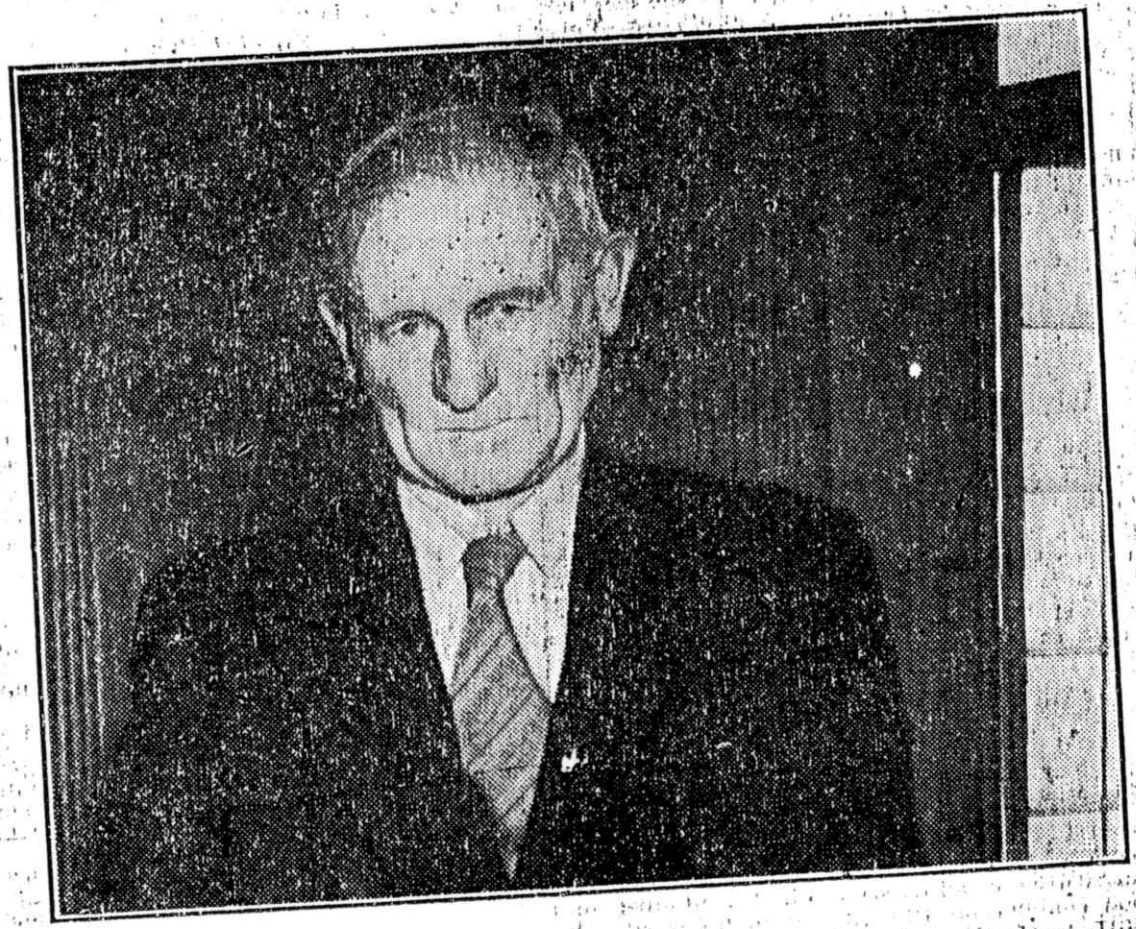
Campbeltown.

Coast Line Master Retires



CAPTAIN J. MacKinnon, a captain in the Coast Line fleet, retired on June 30 after having served for 36 years in command of various vessels of the Company. A native of Tiree, he joined F. A. Powell and Co., now Coast Lines, Ltd., as second officer of the steamer Faithful in 1912 and four years later was appointed to his first command. From then until his retirement he has continued in command of Coast Line vessels, his last one being the Northern Coast. Capt. MacKinnon has been presented with an inscribed gold watch by Mr H. G. Sorrel, joint General Manager of Coast Lines Ltd, on behalf of his colleagues in the company.