

February 1894
Mrs. Muelan

Scarvisk, Linn
Feb 8 1894

Dear Sir

It is quite clear from Mrs. Wallace's letter of the 1st Feb. that she endeavours, as she has always done, to pose as the Spirit of Generosity and a martyr to family duties - in words - Any money given to my brother on my behalf, she has got - how with full interest, and as for any aid. to us, being asked from or given to us from her, the assertion may stand with her old statement that my brother had taken all her money, at the very time she was lending the Mackenzies hundreds.

My daughter saw her last week when she protested it was all a mistake and that she would write to you to that effect. I can truly say that I covet absolutely nothing in her possession.

Certainly my girls would like to have some of their uncle's books, if given as a friendly gift, if they survive, their aunt, but as for me, Mrs Wallace may do exactly as she pleases, I do not interfere

- unless she books would.

The Irish Acc<sup>t</sup> were with Dr. Gushanan. They are sent with this post.

Yours Truly
J. McLean
