TPF / 1859 / 26

DSC04939

Scarnish 2nd August 1859

Pc. Report

Archibald McDonald Aged between 50 and 60 years - died very suddenly at Baugh parish and Island of Tyree and County of Argyll. this took place on the evening of Monday the 1st instant it appears that the deceased came to Heanish yesterday about noon in company with Lauchlan McDonald his son. and after loading a cart which they had of wood they returned in the afternoon the said Lachlan McDonald his son having the horse and cairt. whilst he the deceased traveled on foot behind on way home the said Lachlan looked back whilst on the road at Baugh near the Bridge and did not observe his father he then left the horse and returned and found the said Archibald McDonald lying dead on the road opposite Reef Cottage

F. F. D.C. Tyree

Remark

I only got information of this about 10 o'clock P.M. last night and made enquiry of those who saw the body but had not time as yet to go to Cornaig where I intend to go today. intend to give Dr. Anderson notice of it today also. before interment.

DSC04940

Archd McDonald
Sudden Death
at Heanish
Tyree
2nd August
1859