Theft of Drugget

Tyree 19th Sepr 1863

Margaret Paterson residing with Widow Campbell at Arinagour Island of Coll Parish of Tyree and Coll and County of Argyll says on or about the 15 or 20th day of June 1863 I had a web of Drugget weaving at Tyree it was sent to Caolis Coll with Charles MacFadyen son of Neil Macfadyen Caolis Tyree it lay for a fortnight in the Inn at Caolis and was sent to Arinagour along with other things that was going to the Steamer it was sent in a mistake on board the Steamer to Glasgow - and no address being upon it, it was brought back to Coll and delivered to Donald Macfadyen cottar at Arinagour who delivered the web to the said Margaret Paterson who says that 4 yards was taken of the piece drugget she said to me she did not know who did this she said it might be done at Caolis or might be done at Tyree but now she says she suspects Donald McFadyen Arinagour and that his house ought to be searched

I do not know what to say to her as it went through so many hands She is not a very good character She said to me that a Freemason had been telling her that Donald MacFadyen at Arinagour had it hid in his House and she also said that the Freemasons can tell any thing that is stolen

I am Sir your obt Servant
