'The what, where, how and why of the Argyll Papers at Inveraray Castle'

Alison Diamond, archivist

Dimàirt 17 An Cèitean / Tuesday 17 May @ 19:30 BST online / air loidhne

What is an archive and what does the archivist do? Where did the Argyll Papers come from and who collected them? How can you access these records about the history of Tìree? Why are they kept in Inveraray Castle? On Tuesday 17 May @ 19:30 BST Alison Diamond, archivist, will be explaining what, where, how and why - and answering any other questions that you have about the archive at Inveraray Castle – in an online seminar.

Alison is Archivist for the Argyll Papers, the family and estate archive of the Campbell family, earls and dukes of Argyll, at Inveraray Castle. Before coming to Inveraray, Alison worked for National Records of Scotland, with roles including cataloguing, establishing the Scottish Register of Tartans, and Education Officer. If you want to know more about what an archivist does, you'll need to come along to this talk to find out!
